The next commodity supercycle?

16 March 2021

"Commodity prices, from copper to corn, are rallying to multi-year highs. A confluence of factors is driving the upswing, with many markets appearing to be in a structural deficit just as the post-pandemic economic recovery gathers pace. A debate is underway around how prolonged the current bull market could be, with many commentators speculating that we are entering a 'supercycle'." For more information please press here.
