

TREPPIDES ACADEMY

Personal Income Tax: Benefits in Kind and the New National Health Scheme

The seminar will address the new guide issued by the Cyprus Tax Department regarding benefits in kind, when do they arise, how the benefit is calculated and what are the obligations of employers and employees in respect of such benefits. In addition, the seminar will cover the New General Healthcare Scheme (ΓΕΣΥ), and the obligations that arise for both employers and employees for payment of the contributions to this scheme. Through practical examples, we aim to give participants an understanding of the new provisions and enable them to be compliant with the new requirements.

Participants Profile: Chief Financial Officers, Accountants, Tax Consultants and other professionals who are involved with the preparation of payroll.

Presenter's Profile

Savvia Stavrou

Savvia Stavrou holds a BSc in Accounting & Finance and is an Associate Chartered Accountant (ACA). She is a member of the Association of Chartered Accountants (ACA) and ICPAC. Savvia Stavrou holds the position of Director at K. Treppides & Co Ltd. She has over 8 years of experience in the field of tax practice. She has provided tax services including Corporate and Value Added Tax to various international business companies spanning different industries and covering a variety of concerns such as cross border transactions and restructuring of businesses, international tax and VAT compliance. Clients involve large groups with operations in Russia and other Eastern European countries, USA, United Kingdom and Central Europe.

Seminar Details:

Date: 28/01/2019

Time: 9:00am- 12:30pm

Location: Londa Hotel Limassol

Language: English

Cost: €100 +VAT

CPD: 3 CPD Units

Contact details:

hr@treppides.com

0035722678944