EBA

Consults on its proposals for a central
AML/CFT database

06 May 2021

The European Banking Authority ("EBA") launched a public consultation on draft Regulatory Technical Standards ("RTS") on a central database on anti-money laundering and countering the financing of terrorism ("AML/CFT") in the EU. This database will be a key tool for the EBA's recently enhanced mandate to lead, coordinate and monitor AML/CFT efforts in the European Union. The consultation runs until 17 June 2021. Risk dashboard: European insurers' risk levels remain broadly stable

06 May 2021

The European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority ("EIOPA") published its Risk Dashboard based on the fourth quarter of 2020 Solvency II data. The results show that insurers' exposures to macro risks remain at high level while all other risk categories remain at medium level. The European supervisors expect an increase in credit risks over the next 12 months, reflecting concerns over corporate indebtedness. For more information please press here.

Key Brexit clash would cost euro swap traders $2.4 million a day

07 May 2021

"One of the biggest Brexit battlegrounds between the European Union and the U.K. now has a price tag: at least $2.4 million a day. That's how much any move by the European Union to cut off access to London's dominant clearinghouses for derivatives could cost traders in euro interest rate swaps, net of buying, according to an estimate from Albert Menkveld, professor of finance at Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, who has sat on advisory panels to European regulatory authorities." For more information please press here.

Bloomberg Bitcoin traders in U.S. lack investor protections, Gensler says

06 May 2021

"U.S. investors lack protections when they trade Bitcoin on cryptocurrency exchanges, Securities and Exchange Commission Chairman Gary Gensler told lawmakers. While his agency currently has authority to regulate digital coins that are considered securities, trading in the world's biggest cryptocurrency represents an oversight gap, Gensler said Thursday during a hearing of House Financial Services Committee. The SEC has signaled that Bitcoin is a commodity under U.S. law and therefore not subject to the agency's toughest rules." For more information please press here.
